SYNOPSIS

An older woman suffering from dementia is convinced that her young live-in nurse is out to kill her and take her life's fortune. But the puzzling reality is that everyone weaves dark secrets, and dementia has a way of unraveling the mysterious truth.

It's all coming back...and it's killing her.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING...

“Multi-Award winning Filmmakers Graham Streeter and Alex Lebosq once again take you on a journey through the eyes of diverse characters that provoke both dialogue and debate about issues that relentlessly hit close to home. A must see film.”

- Zack Sallenberg, Filmmakers International

“Streeter’s work once again reveals a talented filmmaker, playing in the Hitchcock sandbox, who has carefully plotted an engaging character-driven mystery with the right amount of twists and turns. Taught and suspenseful, yet with a good deal of heart.”

- Jody Rogers, havrez
